Jack Eason, Guest Speaker

Board member Carol Veurink and Executive Director Juile Spore served alongside Jack Eason in the Dominican Republic. Ministry to the poor included visits to two local pregnancy centers.

Jack Eason is an advocate for non-profits, such as pregnancy centers, throughout the U.S. and around the world. He has a heart to serve and has the experience to connect with and impact organizations like Pregnancy Resource Center.

Jack has been serving in ministry leadership since 1989 as a youth pastor, worship leader, associate pastor, church planter and producer of a nationally syndicated radio and TV show. His wife Lynette is an award-winning bestselling author of suspense series that bring readers to the edge of their seats, but most importantly, to Christ. They live with their two children in Simpsonville, South Carolina.

See the enclosed RSVP card for requested information and your meal choice(s).
